

Day 2: Monday – Jesus Cleanses the Temple

Theme: Clearing Out the Heart

Scripture: Matthew 21:12-17

90-Second Devotional Summary:

"Jesus entered the temple and found people using religion for their own gain. In response, He flipped tables and called for purity in worship. Our hearts are the new temple—so what tables would Jesus overturn in us? Let's invite Him to cleanse us from anything that's keeping us from true worship."

Reflection Questions:

- 1. What distractions or compromises in my life are keeping me from fully worshiping God?
- 2. Am I holding onto anything that Jesus is asking me to surrender?
- 3. If my heart is a temple, is it a place where God's presence is truly honored and prioritized?

Day 4: Wednesday – Judas' Betrayal and Silent Obedience

Theme: Loyalty vs. Self-Interest

Scripture: Matthew 26:14-16; John 13:21-30

90-Second Devotional Summary:

"Judas traded Jesus for thirty pieces of silver—a cheap price for the Son of God. But before we judge him, let's ask: Have we ever chosen something over Jesus? Comfort, approval, success? Betrayal doesn't always look like a kiss in the garden; sometimes, it looks like silent compromise."

Reflection Questions:

- 1. Have I ever chosen convenience over faithfulness to Jesus?
- 2. What area of my life is most vulnerable to compromise?
- 3. How does Jesus' patience with Judas challenge how I respond to people who have hurt me?

Day 5: Thursday - The Last Supper (Hannah)

Theme: Servanthood and Surrender Scripture: Luke 22:14–20; John 13:1–17

90-Second Devotional Summary:

"Jesus, knowing He was about to suffer, took a towel and washed His disciples' feet. The King became a servant. Then, He gave us communion, a reminder that His body would be broken for us. How often do we pause to reflect on His sacrifice—and how willing are we to serve like Him?"

Reflection Questions:

- 1. Do I truly live with gratitude for Jesus' sacrifice, or has communion become routine for me?
- 2. Who is someone I struggle to serve, and how can I love them the way Jesus loved His disciples?
- 3. What does humility look like in my daily life, and am I willing to embrace it?

Day 6: Friday - The Cross (Andy)

Theme: The Weight of the Cross

Scripture: Luke 23:32-49; John 19:28-30

90-Second Devotional Summary:

"As Jesus hung on the cross, He uttered the words, 'It is finished.' The payment for sin—complete. The wrath of God—satisfied. The door to salvation—open. This is not just a historical event; it's personal. Jesus died for me. Have I truly grasped the weight of what He did?"

Reflection Questions:

- Do I live as though Jesus' sacrifice is enough, or do I still try to earn God's love?
- 2. What sin, shame, or burden am I carrying that Jesus already nailed to the cross?
- 3. How does the cross change the way I see myself and others?

Day 7: Saturday - Waiting in Silence (Caleb)

Theme: Trusting God in the Waiting

Scripture: Matthew 27:57-66

90-Second Devotional Summary:

"Saturday was silent. Jesus was in the tomb, and His followers felt lost. We all have seasons of waiting, where God seems absent. But just because He is silent doesn't mean He isn't working. The resurrection is coming. Will we trust Him in the waiting?"

Reflection Questions:

- 1. Have I ever felt like God was silent? How did I respond?
- 2. What is a situation in my life where I need to trust that God is still working, even when I can't see it?
- 3. How can I hold onto hope even in seasons of uncertainty?

Day 8: Sunday - The Resurrection (Bryan)

Theme: Victory Over Death Scripture: Matthew 28:1-10

90-Second Devotional Summary:

"The tomb is empty. Jesus is alive! Death is defeated, and hope is alive. This isn't just good news—it's THE best news. And because He lives, we don't have to live in fear. The question is: Will we live like resurrection people?"

Reflection Questions:

1. Do I truly believe the resurrection changes everything about my life?

- 2. How does the power of Jesus' victory over death give me hope in my struggles?
- 3. Who needs to hear the message of the resurrection today, and how can I share it with them?
