

SUNDAY TO EVERYDAY

THE MOUNT – Week 4: In the Secret

From the service on 11.23.2025

SCRIPTURE

Read Matthew 6:1–18

Take your time, and write down what stands out to you.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. Where am I most tempted to live for people's approval instead of God's pleasure, and how might that be holding me back from living for Jesus in my everyday life?

Living for Jesus means choosing faithfulness over visibility.

2. How would my week look different if I practiced generosity in a way that seeks God's reward instead of people's recognition?

Living for Jesus means giving in ways that reflect His self-giving heart.

3. In what ways is Jesus inviting me to deepen my private prayer life so my public witness carries more spiritual authenticity and power?

Living for Jesus begins with being formed in the unseen place.

4. What is one appetite, distraction, or comfort I rely on more than God, and how might fasting from it help me live more fully for Jesus' mission?

Living for Jesus requires hunger for the right things.

5. What rhythms of secrecy or hidden faithfulness is the Spirit prompting me to build so my life becomes rooted in the Father's reward rather than human applause?

Living for Jesus means sustaining a life that is anchored in the secret place.

WATCH THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

Grace Community Church